STATIC SEN. DEVICES 1/BAG & ANY #/BOX

STATIC SENSITIVE PACKAGING

PART NAME: Static sensitive devices

PART NUMBER: Various

UNIT PACKAGE QUANTITY: One part per unit container.

CUSHIONING: Nonstatic generating, noncorrosive and shall not crumble, flake, powder or shed.

UNIT CONTAINER: Static shielding or conductive bag.

PACKAGING METHOD: Place one part into a unit container, heat seal, staple or tape the bag closed with a minimum of enclosed air. Place one unit container into an intermediate container, which is a folding box, setup box or a corrugated fiberboard box. Protect parts adequately and fill voids with cushioning. A maximum gross weight of 40 pounds is recommended, but do not exceed the weight limitations of the container.

SHIPPING CONTAINER: Corrugated fiberboard box. Domestic, RSC, of sufficient quality and strength to insure safe arrival of parts.

PACKING METHOD: Pack any number of intermediate containers into a shipping container. A maximum gross weight of 40 pounds is recommended, but do not exceed the weight limitations of the container. Fill voids with cushioning or empty intermediate containers.

MARKING INSTRUCTIONS: Mark each unit bag and intermediate container with RMSC part name/number and quantity. Mark each shipping container with RMSC part name/number, quantity, purchase order number and vendor's name/address. Place Mil-Std-129 sensitive electronic device caution labels, or equivalent, on the unit, intermediate and shipping containers.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS: The intermediate container may be used as the shipping container providing the strength and quality are sufficient to insure safe arrival of parts.

PALLETIZATION: If required, palletize with any standard pallet such that a stable, unitized, and stackable load is created. Fibreboard (cardboard) pallets with plastic cup feet are not allowed.

NOTE: To preserve the environment, RMSC recommends that packaging materials which are manufactured from, and or, with CFC's (chloroflorocarbons) not be used.

This attachment, with its terms and conditions, is an integral part of this purchase order.
